

Missionary Ladies Elect New Officers

Missionary ladies of the Lomita Community church, 2345 25th st., met recently at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Baratta, 1722 25th st., to elect new officers. They are: Dorothy Baratta, president; Mildred Baker, vice-president; Gladys Lee, secretary; Bertha Cook, treasurer; Alice Henderson, recording secretary; Betty Spurgeon, publicity chairman; Helen Peters, song leader; Leuty Hennesy, hostess chairman; Audrey Coffey, telephone chairman; and Thelma Garrison, shipping chairman.

Speaker for the meeting was Miss Audria Lindley.

Open House

General meeting of the Gardena Valley Jewish center was held at the Center building, 14725 S. Gracery Place, Gardena, this week.

An important discussion was held regarding building improvements.

Also discussed were final arrangements for the Gardena Valley Jewish Center Open House. This will be held Sunday, January 29, at the Center building from 4:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The housewarming is open to everyone interested.

Refreshments will be served.

Holds Annual Parish Dinner

The annual parish business meeting and dinner was held at St. Andrew's Church, 1432 Engracia avenue.

Following the ham dinner prepared and served by St. Anne's Guild with Mrs. Gilford Funston as chairman, the Reverend Hugh R. Percy, rector, gave the invocation and discussed future plans for the parish.

Reports heard from the parish organizations were on: treasury, by Alan Moore; proposed budget for 1956 by Howard Percy; advancement fund, by N. A. Williamson; junior young people's fellowship by Reverend Percy, senior young people's fellowship by Frank Willson, phone committee by James Cayton, and Altar Guild by Mrs. M. Solomon.

Others were on woman's auxiliary unified group by Mrs. Alan Moore for Mrs. H. C. St. Martin, Sunday school by Mrs. Kirk Jelf, junior and senior choirs by Percy Green, boys' choir by Walter Evans for Mrs. Evans, and men's fellowship by Arthur Kinsey.

Elected for a three-year period of office were the new vestrymen: Frank Church, Geza Orley, Albert Sadunas, James Weir, Frank Willson, and Jack Lynn.

Newly-elected delegates to the Long Beach Convocation, Diocese of Los Angeles, were: Frank Simcoe, Mrs. M. Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Turner, and Howard Percy.

Alternate delegates chosen were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Silencio and Mrs. Ralph J. Davis.

The benediction, given by the Reverend Percy, closed the meeting.

Church Plans Valentine Fete For Youth

The Training Union of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist church, 24730 Narbonne avenue, will be host to the intermediates and young people of the church at the annual Sweetheart Banquet, February, 14.

The annual church event will feature the crowning of a Valentine king and queen selected on a Training Union attendance basis. The program will include musical numbers by groups and individuals of the church.

The Married Young People's department of the Sunday school met for the first time in the new educational unit recently completed for their use. This rapidly growing department of the Sunday school now has 40 enrolled and is one of the most active departments of the Sunday school.

The entire Sunday School now has an enrollment of 781 with classes for each age from infants through adults.

B'nai B'rith Sets Audience Participation

First regular meeting of the new year for the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women's chapter will be held tonight, January 26, 8:30 p.m., at the Gardena Community center, 1651 Market St.

Mrs. Leonard Fink, program chairman, has planned an audience participation program, which will consist of questions pertaining to the customs, history and religious aspects of Judaism. Prizes will be awarded.

The business session will consist of plans brought to the membership by the ways and means committee for future affairs, both fund raising and social.

Members are urged to attend this meeting to help plan a full year of new, interesting and entertaining methods for expanding the B'nai B'rith treasury, which supports many non-sectarian philanthropic projects, said Mrs. William Brodsky, president.

Churches Will Hold World Prayer Day

With the theme, "One Flock, One Shepherd," the churches in many parts of the world will observe World Day of Prayer on Friday, February 17.

United Church Women of Torrance, WALTERIA, and LOMITA will join the people of 134 countries in the observance at a service to be held at 1 p.m. in the Central Evangelical United Brethren church, 1543 Marcellina avenue.

A group of the representatives from the women's organizations of the cooperating churches met recently at the home of Mrs. H. M. Sippel to make plans for the observance. Mrs. J. Burke Mosley, president of United Church Women, presided at the meeting.

The worship service, written at Cook Christian Training school for Indians in Phoenix, Arizona, will be presented. The speaker for the service will be the Rev. Hugh R. Percy of St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

A union service for the youth of the community will be held at noon of the same day. Mrs. Margaret Wilson, YWCA director, is in charge of arrangements. The place for this meeting will be announced later.

During the days preceding the observance, the film, "While Earth Rolls Onward to Light" will be shown in a number of the churches in this area.

It is a portrayal of the interdenominational mission projects which receive the World Day of Prayer offering.

'Love For Souls' Topic

"If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us." These words from the first epistle of John (4:12) are the golden text of the Sunday lesson-sermon on "Love" in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 1750 Manuel avenue.

The story of Joseph's love for his father, and his triumph over the resentment, hatred and jealousy of his brothers is told in the lesson-sermon. Although Joseph had to endure many vicissitudes after his brothers sold him into slavery, still because of his steadfast love he was able to save his father and brothers at a time when they were in great need.

Performance Of Mormon Choir Slated

Saturday evening, February 4, is the date set for the forthcoming concert to be given in the Torrance Civic Auditorium, 1349 El Prado, by the widely acclaimed Mormon Choir of Southern California.

The 175-voice choir will present a colorful evening of music ranging from dignified and religious selections to patriotic and lighter numbers.

Proceeds will go to help swell the building fund for the new Redondo Stake Center of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The performance is open to the public.

H. Frederick Davis, well known in Southern California music circles, will conduct the choir. Delos Jewkes, bass, will be guest vocalist, and Cicely Adams Brown will be guest instrumentalist as well as accompanist in the choir's first group.

Karleton Driggs will be organ accompanist, with Carmen Lloyd and Helen Cartwright assisting at the piano.

This choir has delighted audiences of national radio programs as well as in many local appearances. Theater-goers will remember the intermission program presented at the "Cine-rama Holiday" premiere in Hollywood and several appearances at "This Is Cinerama," including the first birthday celebration in 1954.

Numerous benefit concerts have been given with many local organizations receiving the proceeds. An inspiring vesper service has recently been presented at the Biltmore hotel for over 1000 delegates to the Federation of Milk Producers.

Adventists Set Giant Youth Conference

Youth directors of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church, 1610 Acacia, will attend a giant three-day youth activities planning conference on Catalina Island Friday January 27-29, to Sunday, January 29, according to Mrs. Venita Steele, youth leader of the local church.

Torrance representatives, Mrs. Steele and Donnie Moshos, will join with some 400 other church youth leaders representing 134 Seventh-day Adventist churches in eight Southland countries at the meet.

To be held in Catalina Island's St. Catherine Hotel, the meet will feature some of the church's top youth officials. The local youth leaders will attend numerous planning sessions at the conclave and will discuss the local church's youth program for 1956 with officials. Sessions of the convention will follow the 1956 theme of all Adventist youth which is, "Keeping Faith."

Pastor Glenn L. Goffar, commenting on the major church convention, said, "Youth today is doing much to spread the revival of religious thinking in America. Well directed youth, working toward spiritually inspired goals can accomplish an even greater awareness of eternal values in our society."

AVOID POPULARITY; it has many snares, and no real benefit.—Penn.
